

The nomination letter should not exceed one page A4 written with the character Calibri 11 , minimum space 1.

Object: Lifetime Achievement Award in Pharmacology 2017 Nominee
Professor XXXXXXXX

Dear Members of the Selection Committee:

We would like to jointly nominate Professor XXXXXXXX for the Lifetime Achievement Award in Pharmacology 2017.

Professor XXX is an internationally recognized pharmacologist who has made numerous landmark contributions to [field(s) of research] research. During more than XX years of active research he has published over XXX articles detailing seminal findings in the field of [field of research]. Professor XXXX has received [awards and prizes throughout his careeretc. Professor XXXX is widely regarded as an inspirational mentor, having nurtured, guided and propagated the careers of many scientists in Italy and abroad, within both Pharmacology and cognate areas.

For his investment in scientists of the future and his outstanding research in [field of research] (detailed below) we believe Professor XXXX would be an eminently suitable and richly deserving recipient of the 2017 Lifetime Achievement Award in Pharmacology.

One of the common threads in Professor XXXXX outstanding career has been his ability to define [please describe briefly his/her major achievements two periods max]. The major areas to which Professor XXX contributed in the [research field] can be succinctly listed as: a) discovery of; b) c) etc [nominating people can quote the key papers and report the reference at the end of the letter]

In the next two three paragraph please synthesize the candidate profile as the example that follows

Professor XXXX was a vital contributor to the discovery of XXXX. Professor XXXX seminal observation published in XXXXX to define the notion thatetc continue describing the major achievements of the candidate and if appropriate on his/her more recent achievements

We, the nominating team, together with many others, have all had our research and careers touched by Professor xxx and are proud and privileged to have the opportunity to nominate him for the Lifetime Achievement Award in Pharmacology 2017. We sincerely hope that the Committee recognizes his outstanding achievements. We attach Professor XXXX curriculum vitae to our nomination (support letters).

Yours sincerely ,
Prof xxxx yyyyy (on behalf of all nominators)

The nomination letter should not exceed one page A4 written with the character Calibri 11, minimum space 1.

Nominating team:	e-mail

References quoted in the letter text: