

EACPT Prize 2021

for Lifetime Achievement in Clinical Pharmacology

This prize will be awarded for significant achievement, both for the benefit of science and also for the benefit and health of the specialty, over a whole working life.

The winner will be chosen by the EACPT Council following nominations from members of EACPT Council and from EACPT National member Societies.

Nominations with relevant CV and list of publications and supporting statements should be sent to the EACPT secretary (asancho.hpth@gmail.com) by 12 midday CET on February 15th, 2021.

See the accompanying notes on page 2 for criteria for nominations.

Prof. Jamie Coleman
EACPT Chairman

Supporting information and requirements

2021 EACPT Lifetime Achievement Award in Clinical Pharmacology

Candidates must:

1. Be able to demonstrate a long-standing personal contribution in any scientific, clinical or educational field of clinical pharmacology that has contributed towards the significant development of the discipline.
2. Not be current members of the EACPT Executive Committee in order to be considered eligible for nomination.
3. Not be previous EACPT Lifetime Award winners. Previously nominated candidates are eligible for re-nomination. Nominations must be resubmitted at the time of each new call.
4. Have accepted the nomination.

Application documents

1. Candidates must be nominated using a signed nomination letter. Supporting information (i.e., CV of the candidate) should also be supplied.
2. Nomination papers must be submitted electronically and must bear the name of the person making the nomination.
3. Completed and signed nomination letter, together with any supporting information, must be sent to the Secretary of EACPT (asancho.hpth@gmail.com), by the notified closing date: 12 midday CET, February 15th, 2021.

The successful candidate

1. The Award will be presented at the EACPT Congress in Athens, June 26-29, 2021.
2. The Award winner will be expected to give an Award Lecture at the Congress, which will be recorded for posting on the EACPT website.
3. The Award winner will also be expected to provide a paper for publication in the official EACPT journal, European Journal of Clinical Pharmacology.